VICTORY PREDICTED BY 2 TOUCHDOWNS

Confident of winning a victory by at least two touchdowns, the Pendleton high school football team left on the early train this morning for La Grande where the team of the high school of that city will be met this afternoon. The boys were accompanied by Coaches Lytle and Asbahr.

Their last practice last evening was a strenuous one though no bucking was done. The coaches have innumerable trick and fake plays which are worked by the team in a remarkable manner and should serve to disconcert the opponents and the forward pass has been perfected nicely.

La Grande has a good team this year, despite the fact that it was defeated by Walla Walla in an early season game by a very one-sided score. Its "come back" abilities were demonstrated last Saturday when the Union high school was snowed under by a large score. It is very probable that Baker will have a number of her players on the side lines this afternoon to watch the style of play of their future opponents.

The players as announced yesterday plus Substitute Oscar Ferguson composed the squad taken to La Grande this morning. The following is the line-up of the La Grande team:

Garry, I. E.; Bohnenkamp, I. T.; Hough, I. G.; Winters, C.; Conkey, R. G.; Snider, R. T.; Leffel-Crawley, R. E.; Kiddle-Carroll, I. H.; Hunter, R. H.; Geddes-Rosenbaum, P.; Ralston, F.; Gilbert, Kiddle, Andrews, Stoddard, substitutes.

"THE THIRD DEGREE" DRAWS FULL HOUSE

It was a full house and a pleasant one that witnessed last evening the production of "The Third Degree" at the Oregon theater by the United Play company, the same which a short time ago presented "The Lion and the Mouse," another of the famous Charles Klein modern dramas. As in the latter piece, "The Third Degree" finds its gripping strength in the portrayal of the power and resourcefulness of woman when fighting for those she loves and in this element it was as good if not better than its fellow play. Miss Gertrude Ritchie, the "mouse" in the one piece, assumed a very similar role last night and was pitted against the same "lion," Orrin T. Burke, who last night was a corporation lawyer rather than a corporation magnate. Both held up their parts in a way that delighted their audience and further endeared them to the local theater-going public.

"The Third Degree" takes its name from the method employed by some police officials in extorting a confession from an accused person and is a severe arraignment of this method which by the psychological phenomenon of mental suggestion, is shown sometimes to be criminally unjust. A number of tense situations occur during the four acts and the opportunities for stellar acting are plentiful.
